It is a well known fact, that in the progress of civilization, the dairy industry has become one of the most important branches of agriculture. TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

ON AND AFTER THE First day of October, 1875, THE NEW POSTAGE LAW

Makes it compulsory for Publishers to pre-pay postage on all Newspapers sent through the mail, so that Subscribers to the INTELLIGENCER will receive their papers free of charge.

FREE OF POSTAGE.

This new Postal Regulation is destined to work a complete revolution in the system of paying for Newspapers, and already in different parts of the Dominion publishers are availing themselves of the advantages it offers.

It is to be regretted that the law is not applicable to the INTELLIGENCER, as it is not published in the Dominion.

Nevertheless, the law is so framed, that it is possible to adopt it, and it is to be hoped that the law will be so amended, that it will be applicable to the INTELLIGENCER.

Compelling Publishers to pre-pay the postage on their papers, the law now makes it necessary for the application of the same rule to Newspaper Subscribers.

With a view of bringing this system into effect as rapidly as possible, we have decided to make the following

LIBERAL OFFER

To Subscribers of the WEEKLY INTELLIGENCER.

Any Subscriber who has not paid his subscription, by Paying $1.00 on or before the First day of December, 1875, will receive THE PAPER FREE OF POSTAGE for the time being.

It will be remembered that all accounts for Newspapers, as well as for Printing, up to the first day of January, 1875, are due and to be paid to Mr. J. W. Sutherland, at his office, in the City of Montreal.

Printing and Publishing Company, and parties who are indebted to the foregoing for the balance of their accounts, are requested to pay the same to Mr. J. W. Sutherland, at his office, in the City of Montreal.

REMEMBER THE CONDITIONS

All Subscribers who have not paid their subscription, by the First day of December, 1875, will receive the PAPER FREE OF POSTAGE for the time being.

Babette.

And the line from St. Roche's belfry
Dies on the ocean's breast,
And the dimpled waves are rocking
The sailors' barks to rest.

"Babette! Babette!" the mother calls,
Far up above the strand,
"Bring in your father's nets, my child,
And lend your little hand
To turn the reel, nor linger there
So long upon the strand."

The sun is sinking to the sea
In crimson robes and gold;
A chilly breath the ocean stirs
And roush her ringlets gold;

It feels to her like a farewell kiss
From lips now dead and cold.
The yellow light is on the wall,
The sea-wall old and gray,
With weed and lichen mantled all

In silver-hued array,
The children on the pier above
Are laughing in their play.
The quaint, old, red-roofed clustered towers
Looks downward on the wave;
The sea from which her wistful eye
Some answer seems to crave:
That sea which took her love away
And gave him back a grave.
Oh, eyes that once so lightly laughed!
Oh, sad, sweet lips apart!
Once cradled with passionate kisses where
He laid her on his heart.
That sea which took her love away
And gave him back a grave.

To say again the last "God-speed,"
To wave her kerchief white,
And smile in hope—ah, God, who raised
Those long, long, golden, and white

And made the tempest to arise
And rage that howling night,
And smote the little quivering bark,
And tore the plank in twain.
Deal gently with the broken heart
Of her who all in vain
Poured out her soul in fervent prayer
For him who lay in pain.
Nay, not in vain. The rainbow dawned
The sunshine gladdened fair,
And bathed in light a battered corpse.
A gleam of golden hair—
God only heeds the cry of her

The "Serapis."

THE SHIP WHICH IS TO CONVEY THE PRINCE OF WALES TO INDIA—PREPARATIONS FOR THE DEPARTURE.

(From the London Times, Sept. 28, 1876.)

Her Majesty's ship Scapia was formally turned over on Tuesday to her officers and crew, and yesterday, being the last day of her stay in the dockyard at Portsmouth, visitors were generously allowed the run of the ship, the appointments and the stores.

the ship, the stowaways and the galoon excepted. It need scarcely be that thousands availed themselves of opportunity thus afforded them. On Tuesday thirty-two tons of ice were stored board the Serapis, and in the evening baggage of His Royal Highness and a plate, presents, &c., arrived by train at the steam basin, in charge of Isaacson, and were embarked. Yesterday the Prince's stud were stalled, and also cattle and other live stock, which either to minister to the comforts of voyage or to be disposed of as gifts. Some of the boats were also taken on board today. They consist of a State barge 100 feet long, a State galley 32 feet long, steam pinnace and a steam barge each 30 feet long, two troop boats 38 feet long, life-boat 28 feet long, three cutters 30 feet long, one cutter 24 feet long, two galleys 20 feet long, 14 feet wide, and 10 feet deep.

20 feet long, one dingy 15 feet and punt 14 feet long. The life boat and the cutter are fitted with Messrs. Clarke's patent boat-detaching hook.

THE STATE BARGE

which, as has already been stated, is four feet long, presents a highly attractive appearance, and will be rowed by four men. The bows and quarter are ornamented with gold scrolls, while on each side "rubber," which is painted a garish red, two broad bands of gold, enclosed blue ribbands, run the whole length of barge. The backboard is formed of beautifully polished mahogany, carved with Prince of Wales' features set in an oval frame. The tiller is made of electroplated metal with ivory hand. The panels are embellished with wave heading, and a pretty gold wreathing, posed of roses, thistle and shamrock in combination, on a blue ground, goes round the entire barge. The awning draperies a silk damask, the movable canopy underneath being made of the same costly material. The awning, which is supported by brass stanchions, is formed of two tiers to allow of its being tilted so that his al Highness may enter or leave the barge without stooping. The barge is grained throughout its length and a brass flag has been placed at the bows, to which the royal standard will be attached three into each deep. The whole of the ing, carving and painting, including pretty designed budgo on the bows, been executed by the dockyard artists.

The Stato cutter is similarly decorated with the exception that the awning is one length only. The ship's boats, with with the Stato barge and cutter, are have each a gold band enclosed in ribbons. Just as everything had been unsatisfactorily disposed of the dockyard authorities yesterday received an order to pre-accommodation on board for twenty Guardsmen and their horses, as it had thought that the Prince should have

A BODY GUARD COMPOSED OF THE HOUSE

There is still cabin space available on boats after all requirements have been met; the disposal of twenty cavalry horses was not only seriously derange the whole of plans at the last moment, but as a result, of course, would materially increase the cost of reconstruction, which has already transcended the specified limits. We believe the matter is still in abeyance, but it is thought probable that the troopers and their horses will be forwarded in the phantes, which sails on Friday for Que-town; where she will embark the Thirfourth regiment for Bombay.

BURNETT'S FLAVORING EXTRACTS.—The superiority of these extracts consists in the perfect purity and great strength. They are warranted free from the poisonous oils and acids which enter into the composition of many of the factitious fruit flavors now in market. They are not only true to nature, but are prepared from fruits of the highest quality, and are so highly concentrated that only a small quantity will answer the

MONDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1875.

Town and Vicinity.

GRAIN MARKET.—The market today was quiet and receipts light.

TOWN COUNCIL.—A regular meeting of the Town Council will be held this evening.

LITERATURE.—The three mated actresses, which made a voyage to England during the summer, are here loading railroad. The Dundas is for 400 tons burthen.

FEDERAL SENATOR.—The Rev. Mr. Forster preached the funeral sermon of the late Rev. James McKnight in St. George's church yesterday afternoon. There was a large and attentive congregation.

SHOW.—The first snow fall of the season occurred yesterday, the 17th inst. For several hours the white flakes continued to descend, but melted as they fell, and the snow on the hills took the place of rain.

THE HORSE DISEASE.—The prevailing horse disease appears to be spreading rapidly, not half the horses being apparently affected with it. It is fortunate that the disease does not altogether prevent the animals from performing their work.

COWS AT LARGE.—There is still good ground for complaint on the part of owners of cows that are allowed to range at large, in defiance of the By-law, and again draw Mr. Bogart's attention to the fact that a number of cows can be seen at almost any hour of the day roaming about the streets.

A SENATOR IN COURT.—Quite a sensation was created in Court this morning by the fainting of the girl Knecht when she received her sentence. The case was a hard one, and it is to be hoped that the lesson will not be lost upon the prisoner, against whom two additional charges were preferred, which, however, were merely withdrawn.

MENTAL AWE.—Mr. J. W. Boyce, of this town, has been awarded a very handsome medal for the best specimen of photographs exhibited at King & Co's (Toronto) Annual Art Convention, June, 1875. It seems that Messrs. King & Co. offered prizes in this work, open to all photographers of the Dominion, and it speaks highly of our townsman that he carried off the first prize.

POSTAGE ON NEWSPAPERS.—There seems to be some misapprehension as to the amount which should be put upon newspapers when mailed by private parties. Some continue to put ten cent stamps upon papers, which will be soon by the 23rd clause of the recent Act, a waste of money. The 23rd clause of the law provides that "newspapers and periodicals weighing less than one ounce each, may be posted singly at a postage rate of half a cent each, which may be in all cases prepaid by postage stamps affixed to each."

OUR COMING CONTROVERSY.—An excellent cartoon representing Senator Brown as considering whether or not he shall accept the challenge of the West Durham News man. Behind him is Sir John Macdonald, with a little boat in his hand in which are noted figures of himself and Senator Brown, the ex-Premier exclaiming, "We're in the same boat!" Below is a representation of Mr. Brown making his "big push," he being engaged with a lot of dollars, pushing Sir John off a table (power) on which he has been seated at ease. The cartoon is in every way suggestive.

EXAMINATION OF TURBID BARRAGE.—Some time ago the officers of the Grand Trunk, Great Western and Canadian Southern Railways made complaint to the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States that the revenue requiring the passage of passengers between Detroit and Buffalo and Suspension Bridge to be examined by custom house officers was seriously interfering with the business of those roads, and the Secretary was petitioned to either abolish or modify the regulation. A method has now been adopted, which it is expected will meet the requirements of the case. Under the regulation the land baggage of passengers using the Canadian lines in passing between ports in the United States will be marked by the customs officers at the port of departure with an adhesive stamp, to be prepared expressly for this service, indicating on the face the date and hour of the passenger's departure, so that the customs officers at the point of entry may determine at a glance whether arriving passengers carrying land baggage performed the journey on a continuous train. The stamp will be marked with the time of departure and be required to render an account and return stamps not used. This regulation will save through passengers from the annoyance arising from the present mode of having their articles examined by customs officers, and will remove all cause of complaint by the railroad companies.

FINIS.—Shortly after a week yesterday morning, a fire broke out in the stone building on Front Street adjoining Dr. Duffin's office, and was quickly put out by Dr. Duffin, George Palmer, merchant tailor, and Chas. Wilkes, brewer. An alarm was at once sounded from No. 1 station, but by a quarter of an hour later before the alarm was given from the Fire Engine. The firemen turned out promptly, and both engines soon had powerful streams playing on the burning building, which was not very severely damaged. Mr. Duffin, in whose shop it is thought the fire originated, lost all his stock and effects, except a few inconsiderable articles. His family was absent, and he was asked just in time to save his clothing and escape from the flames. Mr. Palmer lost a large quantity of clothing, and nearly all that was not burned was badly damaged by water. Mr. Wilkes saved all his effects. The insurance was as follows: Mr. Duffin, $800 on stock and furniture, in the Hastings Mutual, which will amount to the loss; Mr. Palmer, $800 in the Hand-in-Hand, which it is thought will nearly cover the loss and damage. Mr. Wilkes had no insurance. The building, which was owned by H. L. Wallbridge, was insured to a small extent. One remarkable feature of this fire was the emission of a tremendous thick smoke, which completely prevented passing up or down Front St. for nearly half an hour. What caused it is a mystery.

The mansion about half a mile outside of the town of St. Pierre. New York, Oct. 16.

Through a gentleman arrived here today from St. Pierre, a French Colony in North America, intelligence has been received of one of the most terrible of assassinations in the history of the continent. The mansion about half a mile outside of the town of St. Pierre. The London Murder

The latest developments in the case of the Whitechapel murder in London are that a number of friends of William, brother of Henry, and his companions are out on bail after an examination before a coroner's jury. The jury, after a long adjournment to the crime after the fact, and prison first fastened upon him through the testimony of a woman who was claiming that that of the letter to Miss Wilshire the letter purported to be signed by him. Miss Wilshire said her friend, Mrs. Mary, was an excellent health and spirit and declared the letter to be a forgery intended to mislead the friends of Mrs. King. After George was arrested he endeavored to exculpate himself and leave the crime to his brother, Henry, and his friends. "My brother naked me to buy for chopper and a garden shovel. I had the crime and took them to him, and then away!"

On the 5th of October the magistrates

I am a single woman, living in Hingham and was formerly a milliner and dressmaker; some years ago I worked at the place as Harriet Louisa Lane, which brought me into contact with the people of the town at Hingham; I know the owner with the beard; I know the man who came with the barrel (Henry); I first met him in 1872; when I met him with Mr. Lane at Temple Street; I know the man who was with him at the house in Bedford square; that was when the child was born; after that I used to see him from Gloucester street, and I saw him at the house in Gloucester street, Whitechapel, the 11th of September, Friday, and on that day Harriet Lane, at 4 o'clock, dressed very nicely.

Henry Wainwright, I wrote to Mr. Mor, was 44 Whitechapel road, and Mr. Wainwright said: "I have come over very much concerned and anxious about the matter, and I have been thinking, and I will get her address as soon as possible and let you know." We were not at that evening, and I wrote to Mr. Wainwright, and I can remember, that was all that was the beginning of the work that it might have been the same day. "Have you heard from Mr. Wainwright?" He said, "Yes, I have heard some of with my friend, Frank, and I have been thinking of writing to him, and something to the effect that I was at Abigail; nothing; more was said, but I received that letter."

The new Postal Regulation is destined to work a complete revolution in the system of paying for Newspapers, and already in different parts of the Dominion publishers announce that in future, newspapers published will be

So far as the Newpaper law is concerned, there is no doubt, the only correct and safe system, and it will eventually be adopted universally in Canada as it has been in other countries. Compelling Publishers to pre-pay the postage on their publications, as the law now is, will necessitate the application of the same rule to Newspaper subscribers.

With a view of bringing this system into effect as rapidly as possible, we have been ROOSTER MAIL.—An English mail was distributed at the Post Office this morning.

ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH.—Divine service will be held in St. George's Church at 1:30 p.m., and Sunday School at 9:30 a.m. to-morrow.

REMOVED.—Dr. Tracy has removed to Brick House two doors east from the Bank of Montreal, near Commercial Church, Hotel Street.

CURRY CUP.—The semi-annual meeting of the County Grand Jury, held at the Hotel de Ville, on Friday, 25th inst., at 7 o'clock p.m.

THE FISHMEN.—The bay fishermen report a great falling off in their takes for the past week, which decrease in the quantity of fish exported they attribute to the prevailing winter weather.

THE OLD FOLKS.—The plan for the receiving of extra for the above concert will be opened at Brodie's drug store at 10 o'clock a.m. on Monday. Those who wish to secure good seats had better make early application, as there will no doubt be a rush to obtain the best positions.

INVESTING.—Business men report a steady improvement in the branches of trade, and generally state that the amount of business done is equal to if it does not surpass that of last year. Money is beginning to be more plentiful, and there are good grounds for hoping that the winter's trade will be more favorable than has been anticipated.

CONFECTION.—The note attached by the Judges in their return to the prize for the best at the East Hastings Fair, in the class for "Domestic Manufactures," as printed, reads: "The Judges recommend that no prize be awarded for the best of the class. The word 'best' should be omitted, the Judges commended highly the specimens of Rag Carpet exhibited, and suggested that they should be included in the prize list in future.

THE STREETS.—A considerable amount of work is being done on the streets, in the way of reconstructing and draining. The part of Dundas street between George street and the old distillery is in very good condition, full of dirt, and daily growing worse, owing to the heavy traffic over it, and the hollow places where water flows in front of the premises, and the office, on Market Street, is still there.

THE GRAIN MARKET.—There was a brisk competition on the market this morning, owing to which prices were maintained as previously quoted. Receipts were the largest of the season—heavier, we are assured than for many years past. The elevators were kept very busy receiving, as was shown by the fact that at 11 o'clock there were 50 trains waiting to unload at the Farmers' Warehousing Company's elevator, and 25 at Campbell & Co's.

ACCIDENT.—We learn that on Saturday last a Mr. Thomas Gratrix, a farmer residing in the front of Thurlow, was driving home from Italy's farm, when he was thrown from his Gratrix out of the front of the wagon, the whole passing over him causing serious injuries. The horses then taking the side of the road and coming in collision with the telegraph pole, soon turned the wagon over; the other occupants, two daughters and a son of Mr. Gratrix, escaped with a few light bruises.

ANOTHER FARMER'S MOVEMENT.—We learn from the Napanee Express that a meeting of farmers was held at the Mount Pleasant school-house, third concession of Richmond, on Tuesday evening, when the object of the meeting was to consider the propriety of building a grain elevator at some convenient point along the Napanee River, for the mutual benefit of the farmers. Mr. Henry Evans, appointed chairman, and Mr. Allan, secretary, Messrs. Jacob Schuchman, P. Vandenberg, E. B. Miles, H. B. Allison, R. Smith, William Martin and several other leading farmers spoke in favor of the movement. It was decided to form a Joint Stock Company for the purpose, the shares to be $10 each. Messrs. Allison, Vandenberg and Jacob Schuchman were appointed a committee to select a suitable site for the elevator, and to meet on Tuesday evening at a future meeting, when further action will be taken.

FIRE.—Shortly before 12 o'clock this morning a small fire broke out in Front Street, adjoining Taylor's jewelry store, and occupied by William Gordon as a grocery store, was found to be on fire. Most of the contents of the building were saved, but the same in a badly damaged.

The promptitude of the firemen was highly praiseworthy, as they not only prevented the spread of the fire, but also saved the property in the building. It is out before serious damage is done, and in that which it originated—a very difficult task when it is remembered that the ORANGEVILLE, Ont., 25th Oct. 1875. The sash factory of Messrs. J. & M. Macdonald, situated on the north side of the town, was destroyed by fire on Sunday morning last. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is supposed to have been caused by a defective chimney.

THE BLACK KNIGHTS OF IRELAND, a secret society, which took place, under the auspices of the Rev. John P. O'Connell, New York, Jersey City and Brooklyn, in the St. Charles Hotel, Broadway, New York, on Monday night, 24th inst., was a grand display of the society. WERT TORONTO.

The Globe is in high dudgeon because the Conservatives have dared to bring out a candidate to contest the West Riding of the City of Toronto, and the Toronto Freeman, a Tory paper, has dared to publish a purely party feeling, and adds that to do so is to the last degree imprudent. It would be difficult to believe that a paper of the Globe's standing would be so much interested in a purely party feeling, and that a paper of the Freeman's standing would be so much interested in a purely party feeling. The Globe's interest in a purely party feeling is a very curious thing, and the Freeman's interest in a purely party feeling is a very curious thing. The Globe's interest in a purely party feeling is a very curious thing, and the Freeman's interest in a purely party feeling is a very curious thing.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1875.

In this "Wild Fall Season."

Mr. Thos. White, in a speech delivered in Montreal on the 21st, brings another charge home to the Premier, and the Hon. gentleman has not yet used the telegraph wire to denounce it as a "wild fall season," and from past experience we should judge he is not likely to do so. His reputation in the past has suffered from indiscretion, and he is now in a position to appear unable to control, and until the fall has been forgotten, it would be well for him to remain quiet. The present charge is of a somewhat serious character, and the job given to a hanger-on of the Public Works in connection with the boom on the Gatineau, where a Conservative was literally cheated out of a contract after he had set to work and spent over $10,000, and the job given to a hanger-on of the party. Mr. White is doing good service to the country in unearthing this system of favoritism at the expense of the Dominion, and whether stated or not will undoubtedly be of great service to the country for exposing the manner in which the Ministry is using the public money to feed and fatten their followers. Mr. White says nothing about the fact that a few weeks ago an order was issued for the purchase of 40,000 tons of steel rails, for the landing place in Montreal to what was called Rock Out, near Lachine, on the Lachine Canal, and a gentleman by the name of Kenny, a worthy Irishman, managed to secure the contract at what he considered a very fair price (four shillings a long ton) amounting in all to over $20,000. He made the contract with Mr. McKim, representative of the Ministry of Justice, and had removed nearly $11,000 from the Ministry's account. Mr. McKim, when what was his intention to find that after obtaining the contract he had read it under seal that day, he was informed that the Government had changed its policy; that they were going to send the rails to Kingston, and that the contract for such removal was awarded to Messrs. Holcomb and Stewart, who were the Government's chosen ones. Mr. McKim, who was a Conservative, thought that it was his duty to see that the policy of the Government had not been in the best interests of this country, and that he was not disposed to allow his principles as a Conservative to be sacrificed for the sake of a contract. He dropped him suddenly, violated their agreement with him, and entered into an agreement with another firm, one member of which was at any rate, the most bitter opponent of Mr. McKim's policy. The steel rails were being made, and the business was being made.

In justification of this act of the Government in taking away the contract from Mr. Kenny, and giving it to political supporters of the Ministry of Justice, Mr. McKim, in relation to the matter, he Mr. Kenny would never have got the contract, for my motto is "Stand by your friends," and we all know that Mr. Kenny is not only an opponent of the party, but an opponent of myself and of the Government. These contracts should be given to some one who works in the cause, and who suffers in the cause when it is necessary to do so; and I hold that it is the duty of the Government, when they are in a position to bestow, to bestow on friends, and not on opponents, because it is to their friends they must look in the hour of need; and if they scattered their money among the men who are prepared to turn their backs on them, they would forfeit the confidence of many who support them today. This is my principle in Montreal County, if a man applies to me for anything I find out first whether he is a friend or not, and if I do not, I tell him at once he must go away.

Here then we have the reasons for taking away the contract from Mr. Kenny. We agree with the doctrine that if a Government has any favor to bestow, it should, other things being equal, give it to its friends; but that is vastly different from taking for the performance of public work—accepting the lowest tender, and the Government is partially and mistakenly performed, take the contract away from the party because it is a Conservative. Such is the doctrine of Barney Devlin, which appears to be the principle upon which the Ministry of Public Works conducts its office. It would be well for the Government when advertising for tenders for any particular work to add a P.S. That none except supporters of the Government need apply, and that all others are prepared to change sides. The present work in power do many strange things, and this last proposition of Mr. Devlin, is no more than might be expected.
